

OUT OF TOWN NOTES.

TULLAHOMA NOTES.

Mrs. Emilie Brown is much improved at this writing.
Mrs. Martha Shofner is on the sick list this week.
Mrs. Lou Jones, who has been sick, is much improved.
Mr. Frank Ramsey, an energetic young man of Tullahoma, has accepted a position with Mr. J. H. Holman in the tailoring business.
We are sorry to say that Mr. John Childress is quite sick at this writing. It is to be remembered that Mr. Childress is one of the oldest citizens of our town and has always stood his ground as a man for his race.
Rev. Wm. Jenkins filled the pulpit for Rev. T. B. Blackman last Sunday at 11:30. Rev. Jenkins preached from Matthew 8:27. All present seemed to enjoy his sermon and a cordial invitation was extended him to come and preach again. Rev. Jenkins left Wednesday for Huntsville, where he goes to attend the Mussel Shoal Association.
Mr. S. R. Jones, the city contractor, is building a large $250 barn for Mr. J. H. Holman. He is being assisted by Mr. Tressie Wakefield.
Mr. B. McGhee is building a nice residence on Baptist Hill.
Miss E. M. Martain is on the sick list this week.
Little Miss Jannie Mai Jenkins was a visitor at the M. E. Church last Sunday.
Mr. Robie Clenden has accepted a position in Nashville.
Prof. J. W. House, of Chattanooga, spent last Sunday with his family.
Mr. R. C. Coble, of Chattanooga, was in town last Sunday.
Read the Globe like Mr. S. R. Jones, Rev. Maton and J. H. Holman, and keep posted with the Negro news.

UNA NOTES.

Benevolent Order No. 197 had their annual sermon on the third Sunday and were favored in their proceedings by a visit from their Grand President, Brother William Copeland. B. O. No. 118 was well represented, also representatives from B. O. No. 106 and No. 1. Rev. Samuel Hartsfield preached the sermon.
The contest between Misses Gertrude Fleming and Bessie Searcy will close with a grand entertainment on Saturday night, October 8, and a rally on Sunday, October 9, at Solomon Chapel A. M. E. Church.
The Stewardess Board of Solomon Chapel, under the supervision of Mesdames Belle Cannon and Jennie Burnett, is striving to make a grand report for the annual conference.
Little Eugene Watson spent one week with his grandfather, Mr. Henry Watson.
Mrs. Tyree White was the guest of her father, Rev. J. A. Miller, last Sunday.
Rev. C. H. Williams was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burnett last Sunday.
Mesdames Ethel McKelvey and Mattie Gooch are able to be out again after a brief illness.
Eva, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Searcy has been suffering from a sore foot.
Mrs. Ellen Leath is in our midst, visiting neighbors and relatives.
Mrs. Eliza Cook and Lizzie Davis have moved to the city.
Rev. Tyree White is assisting Rev. J. D. Frierson in a protracted meeting at Bellevue.
Rev. C. H. Simmons will fill the pulpit at Paines Chapel next Sunday in the absence of the pastor, Rev. C. H. Williams.
Rev. C. H. Williams preached two able sermons at Solomon Chapel last Sunday.
Miss Leana Leach, who has been suffering with tonsillitis, is better at this writing.
Miss Bessie J. Searcy made a flying trip to Chattanooga last week.

WINCHESTER NOTES.

September 23rd and 24th were gala days for the people of Winchester and Franklin County. The first attempt for a county fair was grand, the farmers were out in great numbers with exhibits of all kinds.
The agricultural department was wonderfully surprising and worth one's time to view the products of the colored citizens of this county. Horses, mules and cattle of the very best breeds were shown by our people which indicated an onward march.
The poultry department was grand with high-grade breeds. W. T. Petty carried off many blue ribbons along this line. The floral department under the supervision of Mrs. S. S. Gray, was grand indeed. The exhibit in this department placed our women on record as having the ability to make for any state, monuments for blessings and proud hearts.
The Tullahoma band, under the supervision of Dr. Spencer and Mr. Robert Jones, furnished excellent music for the occasion. With heavy rains both days, we came out successful, awarding premiums in every department. The very best order was had during the whole time, under the leadership of Prof. M. G. Moore, President, and W. T. Pely, Secretary.

PULASKI NOTES.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Dangerfield entertained Wednesday night to compliment their niece, Miss Beatrice Dangerfield, of Lewisburg, and Miss Mattie Conner, of Nashville. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns and other potted plants. Music and cards were the features of the evening. Several beautiful instrumental selections were rendered by Misses Jones, Bramlette and Turner. Those present were Miss Mattie Conner, of Nashville, Josephine Bramlette, Mattie Lou Potter, Dimple Bates, Beatrice Dangerfield, of Lewisburg, Josephine Bramlette, Mamie Turner, Alice Patton, Mabel Jordan, and Alma Jones. Mr. Worley Pullen, Monroe Jordan, Walter McNairy, Jeff Tillery, Dave White, Earl Buford and Richard Mitchell. At a late hour a delicious ice-course was served.
Mr. Collins Bramlette left Saturday for Cincinnati, after a short visit to home folks.
Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Copeland spent the day Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Dangerfield.
Mrs. R. B. Pender entertained a few friends to honor Miss Beatrice Dangerfield last Monday night.
Mrs. Robt. Maxwell passed through Sunday from Nashville en route to her home at Birmingham.

BRIERSVILLE NOTES.

Rev. Wm. Lee, pastor of the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, of this place, preached his farewell sermon here last Sunday. Rev. Lee has been our pastor for eleven years.
Mr. Robert Wilson, of Rock City was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Mary L. Love, last Saturday and Sunday.
Mrs. Fanny Rankins has returned home after spending a month in Kansas City, Kans., the guest of her sister, Mrs. Alice Rogers.
A number of people of this place visited Dry Creek last Sunday to attend the baptizing at the A. M. E. Church.
A number of people of this place attended the state fair at Greenwood Park last week.
Miss Florence Pettis, of this place, was the winner of the first prize on chowchow pickles, second prize on canned peaches and second prize on blackberry wine.

COLUMBIA NOTES.

Miss Ida Halfacre will leave this week for Normal, Ala., to enter school.
Rev. Majors, of Kentucky, is conducting a series of meetings at Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church.
Mr. Houston Mack, of Chicago, is visiting here.
Mothers and Industrial School Committee met in the public school building Monday, the 3rd, to arrange for an educational rally, which will be the first Saturday in November.
Rev. J. B. Spratlin has resigned his pastorate of the Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church.
Mrs. Mollie Evans attended the fair in Nashville.
Miss Olive J. Lischy, of Nashville, spent the week-end here last week.
Prof. J. H. Kelly attended the fair in Nashville last Saturday.
Mrs. Elizabeth Miller is much improved after a serious spell of sickness.
Mrs. Ella D. Wells, who has been teaching in the Clarksville public school for several years, has resigned the position and arrived here Saturday. She is at the home of her parents on Washington street.
Mrs. Lillie Love, wife of Mr. Andrew Love, died at her home September 30. Her funeral was from St. Paul Church, of which she was a member. Services were conducted by the pastor, Rev. S. L. Howard.

Mt. Lebanon Missionary Baptist Church Loses Her Pastor.

At a meeting of the members of Mt. Lebanon Missionary Baptist Church, of Columbia, held on the 3rd inst., the Rev. J. B. Spratlin tendered his resignation as pastor, which was reluctantly accepted by the church. Rev. Spratlin has been in charge of the church for the past five years, having succeeded the Rev. C. A. Ward, who resigned to accept a charge in the East. Since Rev. Spratlin has been in charge, great improvements have been made. The building has been remodeled at considerable cost, so that internally it appears like a new building. The basement has been concreted and a furnace installed, thus doing away with the unsightly stove in the auditorium of the edifice, the chief mission of which seems to have been to emit gas and smoke. Rev. Spratlin is Moderator of the Duck River Association and the duties pertaining to that position claim a good portion of his time, and he is also engaged in compiling a Hand Book for the Association, the same to be placed in the hands of all the members. Besides this he is in charge of a school of instruction for the young ministers of the association, and aside from instruction in theology the class receives instruction in the English Branches. The movement is something of a novelty, but very helpful to all concerned. While relinquishing the charge as pastor, it is gratifying to know that he will still be with the church at intervals, being Moderator, and the city and county to which he has endeared himself because of his unselfish devotion to the interest of all classes, will still be a potent factor for good in our community. A vote of thanks was extended to him by the church and it is the endeavor to give a farewell supper in his honor some time in the near future.

A. J. ARMSTRONG,
W. D. KELLY,
Committee.

CENTERVILLE NOTES.

Rev. H. F. Smith held his last quarterly conference for this conference year Saturday and Sunday. The reports were all very gratifying and up to the standard. Rev. Smith was very much impressed by them and promised to use his influence to induce conference to give this place financial aid in rebuilding the church.
At the last the church at this place was given $125 for building purposes. The officers of the church found that this sum and what they could raise is not sufficient for them to make much progress toward building.
The progress that the Baptists have made in rebuilding their church together with other circumstances have caused the A. M. E.'s to put on their building clothes and no doubt the close of next conference year will find the church, if not completed nearing its closing mark.
The presiding elder was paid in full and he promised to send, if not the same man, one equally as strong, both in the ability as a pastor and as a church builder.
Misses C. A. Mahaffey, Roxie A. Hornbeak, Mary A. Tucker, all teachers in this county were in town Saturday and Sunday.
Miss R. G. Cox, who closed her school for a few days to allow the people to gather their crops, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Dellmison.
Regular monthly examination was held at Centerville Preparatory School last week.
The work for the first month has been very pleasing to the teachers and all indications point to a successful year's work.

DAYTON NOTES.

Rev. J. V. L. Crippius, of Chattanooga, who has been helping Rev. J. P. Johnson in his revival left for his home last Thursday.
Rev. J. T. Thornton preached a soul-stirring sermon at Mt. Zion Baptist Church last Sunday.
Mrs. Lizzie Martin, Mrs. Lizzie Golden and Mrs. Pheby Organ, who spent last week in Knoxville visiting the exposition, have returned to their homes.
Rev. James Franklin made a trip to Rockwood last Sunday.
Mr. and Mrs. Will White have moved into their new home.
Miss Bessie Hodgkins, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lee last Sunday.
Miss Mary Moore the daughter of Rev. James Moore, who is pastor of the St. James Baptist Church, arrived in the city last Tuesday to accept a position in the city school.
Miss Dora Cunningham, who has been reported sick, is not any better.
Rev. G. W. Canes, leaves soon for his conference at Johnson City.
Rev. A. P. Patton the A. M. E. Zion pastor leaves the city soon.
Mrs. N. Roberts left last Sunday for Columbus, Ohio, to visit relatives.
Messrs. Arthur Johnson, Charley Stephens, Holman, Oakley and Broyles attended the fair at Rhea Springs.
Mr. G. F. Holman made a business trip to Knoxville last week. He also visited the exposition.
Mrs. Carrie Grisham visited the exposition last week.

SHELBYVILLE NOTES.

Last Sunday was a high day at the M. E. Church, being the closing Sabbath of the conference year with the M. E.'s in this town. Rev. F. W. Collier, the pastor, preached his farewell sermon to a crowded house at night.
Rev. Willis Ains, a student of Walden, spent a few days recently in the city, a special guest of Miss Annie Lee Thompson, one of the popular young ladies of Shelbyville. He preached a special sermon at the M. E. church on Sunday before he left.
Dr. Sorrell has returned to Me-harry, after several months sojourn in our midst. He expresses his intention of making Shelbyville his future home. He called out to bid the Turner Normalites goodbye before he left.
Messrs. Rhodes and Norman, the two popular contractors, of Nashville, made a flying trip to our town last Tuesday, as prospective bidders on the new girls' dormitory of Turner Normal College. They were the guests of Dr. J. A. Jones during their short stay.
Turner Normal is practically filled already. Students are steadily pouring in almost daily. The boys' building is filled to overflowing, and there
